

Namibia

Namibia never fails to enthrall its visitors. In addition to having a striking diversity of cultures, Namibia is a photographer's dream - boasting wild seascapes, rugged mountains, lonely deserts, stunning wildlife and colonial cities. Time and space are less defined here. Watch a lion stalking its prey on an endless plain in Etosha or zip down one of the many dunes on a sandboard. Spend a night in the desert under a starlit sky or explore the massive 500 m deep Fish River Canyon, one of Africa's greatest natural wonders.

Enthralling Namibia contains a notable infrastructure of well-kept roads, a wide range of accommodations, hearty food and drinkable water – making a Namibia holiday an unforgettable experience.

Climate

In summer (October to April) the average interior temperatures range from 20° to 34° C, but can rise to over 35° C in the extreme north and south of the country. The temperatures in the west (along the coast) are a fairly stable 15° to 25° C all year round and heavy fog is common at night.

The rainy season is from October through to April and the average annual rainfall varies from less than 50mm along the coast to 350mm in the central interior, and 700mm in the Caprivi.

Winter is from May to September with temperatures in the interior ranging from 18° to 25° C during the day. However below freezing temperatures and ground frost are common at night. Winter is widely regarded as the best season to visit Namibia.

Distances & Driving

Though Namibia's road network is considered one of the best in the world, many of the roads are still gravel based and travelling over 80kms per hour can be extremely hazardous. Therefore it may take longer than expected to cover important distances. In Namibia one drives on the left, safety belts must be used at all times and the use of hand-held cell phones when driving is prohibited. Road signs are international and easy to understand.

Cars, minibuses and 4x4 vehicles can be hired at all major towns.

Currency

The Namibian Dollar (N$) is divided into 100 cents and equals the South African Rand. The Namibian Dollar and the South African Rand are the only legal tender in Namibia. (See currency converter on left menu for current exchange rates).

Foreign currency travellers cheques can be exchanged at most banks.

Major credit cards such as Master Card, Visa and Diners are widely accepted throughout the country.

VAT

All goods and services offered include VAT. VAT for goods purchased may be reclaimed at the main border posts and Windhoek International airport.

Health

The north of Namibia, including Etosha is a malaria-endemic area. Travellers are advised to take the necessary medication/prophylaxis and carry a mosquito repellent or spray, available at a local shop or pharmacist. Tick bite fever can be a problem when walking in grass and travellers should be aware that the incidence of AIDS is high throughout Southern Africa.

Medical services in Namibia are of a high standard. However the availability of the services is restricted to the main towns and emergency evacuation from remote areas may attract high costs. An insurance service for tourists is available from rescue companies providing coverage for emergency transport.

Water

Tap water is safe to drink in major towns and cities. Visitors should take caution in rural areas and ensure that they have enough water when travelling by road.

Electricity

220/240 volts AC. Outlets are of the round 3-pin, 15-amp type.

Visas

Some European citizens need visas. Please check with your local Namibian consulate or embassy.

Local Time

GMT + 2 hours, however daylight saving (GMT +1) puts Namibia one hour behind South Africa during winter, from the first Sunday in April to the first Sunday in September.

NB: There is no daylight saving in the North-Eastern and Caprivi region.

Communications

Though Namibia offers a widespread and reliable service for landlines, some lodges may be beyond the range of the network. Although cell phone coverage is fast expanding numerous rural areas remain beyond coverage. The international dialling code is +264 followed by the regional code and the desired number.

Email is used extensively and there are internet cafés in all the major towns.

Official Languages

The official language is English and all documents, notices and signs are in this language. Afrikaans and German are both widely used.
